Prelude

Jesus Christ is Arisen
Denise Lanning, organ

Emma Lou Diemer

Centering Prayer:

Holy Lord Jesus, on this day we rejoice in your glory and stand in awe of how you have transformed this world with your dying and your rising. Receive our joyful praise. Alleluia! Amen.

Chiming of the Hour

Welcome

Rev. Morgan C. Fletcher

We are glad you have joined us for our virtual worship service this morning. Please let us know you are worshipping with us by posting pictures of you or your family worshipping in your home on Facebook or Instagram and tagging Calvary Baptist Church of Denver.

Welcoming the Light of Christ

Trumpet Fanfare
Rev. Brenda J. Goodman, trumpet

The Goodman Family

Today we welcome back into our worship service the Christ Candle, a symbol of the Risen Lord of Easter and the living presence of Christ among us and within us today.

Celebrating the Risen Christ

Maddie, Allie, & Duncan Hulst

One: Today we awaken to the dawn of a new day!

Two: We are called to be Easter people!

Three: We celebrate the good news of God's love!

All: Darkness cannot claim us.

Fear cannot bind us.

Illness and death cannot consume us.

One: The empty tomb symbolizes the Light shining in the Darkness:

All: the power of Life over Death,

the power of Hope over Despair.

the power of Love over Fear.

Two: And so we proclaim with Joy:

Three: Alleluia! Christ is risen!

All: Christ is risen, indeed! Alleluia!

Call to Worship

Alan Smith

One: We are not eye-witnesses to an event,
 as were Mary and the disciples;
 we have not journeyed
 through a dangerous city
 to seek answers or consolation;
 we have not seen angels
 gathering at the rim of this day, or wept in the garden this morning
 because we could not find Him.

But we are here to attest to a story that has not lost its power during twenty centuries
of change and conflict,
problems and pandemics.

We are here because those before us carried this story
as if it were precious gold;
cherished it as if it were the key to a hidden wisdom.

Sisters and brothers in Christ,
take your places here today
in celebration and in awe.
What you are about to hear again,
has the capacity to change the world.
Your very presence attests to the rising up of life
from the tomb of despair,
and to the uncontrollable power of God.

All: *It is Easter morning again;
the stone has been rolled away,
and we will celebrate!

Song

Forever

Brian Johnson, Kari Jobe,
Jenn Johnson, Gabriel Wilson,
Joel Taylor & Christa Black Gifford

The moon and stars they wept
The morning sun was dead
The Savior of the world was fallen
His body on the cross
His blood poured out for us
The weight of every curse upon Him

One final breath He gave
As heaven looked away
The Son of God was laid in darkness
A battle in the grave
The war on death was waged
The power of hell forever broken

The ground began to shake
The stone was rolled away
His perfect love could not be overcome

Now death where is your sting
Our resurrected King has rendered you defeated

Chorus

Now forever He is glorified
Forever He is lifted high
And forever He is risen
He is alive and He is alive
(REPEAT)

Bridge

We sing hallelujah we sing hallelujah
We sing hallelujah the Lamb has overcome
(REPEAT)

We sing hallelujah we sing hallelujah
We sing hallelujah

Easter Prayer

Rev. Alice Horner-Nelson

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Gospel Reading

Mark 16:1-8

Rev. Jacob Goertz

New Revised Standard Version

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ² And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³ They had been saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" ⁴ When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. ⁵ As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. ⁶ But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. ⁷ But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.” ⁸ So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Service Notes

Easter is the oldest festival of the Christian Church. Easter is the celebration of the resurrection of Jesus on the third day after his crucifixion. In the early Church, new converts sat in vigil during the night before Easter. Then they were baptized and received their first Holy Communion on Easter Day.

The prelude by Emma Lou Diemer (b. 1927) is based on the Easter hymn "Christ the Lord is Risen Today", number 194 in our hymnal. This composition is found in a collection of organ pieces by several distinguished composers titled The Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. The familiar hymn-tune is easily heard throughout, but many sections of this work are characterized by Dr. Diemer's love of dissonance and rapid change of texture.

The Welcoming the Light of Christ Trumpet Fanfare is played by Rev. Brenda J. Goodman. Brenda grew up here at Calvary and serves as a rotational leader with Common Table, Common Life, Healing and Wholeness services, and other creative and pastoral needs, including co-coordinating the Art Show Ministry Team. She was ordained at Calvary and is a chaplain at Sky Ridge hospital. She loves running, waterskiing, writing, reading, photography, trumpet, and the arts. Brenda is joined by her family this morning as they hold the Christ Light: her husband, John, and their two children, Taylor and Nathan.

The Celebrating the Risen Christ litany is written by Nancy C. Townley and is led by Maddie, Allie, and Duncan Hulst. Maddie Hulst, lifelong member of Calvary, is a senior at Colorado State University in Fort Collins. She will graduate in May with a Bachelor's degree in Biomedical Sciences. She is currently finishing her studies and will be the head coach of the Wildcat Ridge Tigersharks swim team this summer while looking for a full time position in the STEM field for the fall. Allie Hulst, lifelong member of Calvary, Council member, and Bootstraps and Blessings volunteer, is a sophomore at ACC (shout out to A.A. Brown). She also works at Chuze Fitness in Highlands Ranch. She is planning to get her certification as a Personal Fitness Instructor. She is an inspiration to anyone who is a Type One Diabetic. Duncan Hulst, lifelong member of Calvary, is a junior at Rock Canyon HS in Highlands Ranch. He is planning on following in his sister's footsteps at CSU. He currently works at Ace Hardware and is an avid golfer.

The Call to Worship is written by Ann Siddall and is led by Alan Smith. Alan has been attending Calvary since Christmas Eve 2019. Alan volunteers with the Bootstraps & Blessings ministry and enjoys attending The Gathering on Sunday evenings (he hasn't missed one service since he started coming!) He very much appreciates being educated by what he calls the Three Wise Women (Pastor Anne, Pastor Alice, and Pastor Morgan) because that's how he first saw our pastoral staff on Christmas Eve as they gave reflections. Professionally, Alan is a site/store manager for StorQuest. In his free time, Alan seeks to focus on his health - mind, body, and spirit - and enjoys running, resistance training, and connecting with his spirituality. His favorite number is 3.

The Song is led by The Gathering Worship Band, which is led by Rev. Matt Nelson. Like what you hear? Worship with The Gathering virtually every Sunday on YouTube.

Calvary: IN Response! This stewardship emphasis carries over the theme from last fall's stewardship campaign, "I'm IN!". It will highlight a different theme each week, beginning April 5, culminating on Sunday, May 3. Together we will stay IN-Side, stay IN Touch, stay INVolved. Together IN Faith and IN Unity we will meet our Needs, as Calvary rises up IN Response to this current global crisis. This week we are focusing on two themes:

- We are still INVolved with our missions and ministries that serve those in need in our community. Through Family Promise, we are paying to host and feed families experiencing homelessness for a week at a hotel during our Family Promise host week in April. We also offer financial support for Calvary members impacted by job-loss during this crisis.
- This means we are IN Need. We continue to pay our contract and hourly workers (nursery workers, sound techs, cleaning company, etc.) to help keep them solvent until we can reopen our doors. We need to make up for lost building usage income. And we still must pay utilities on our idle structure.

Help us spread the message on social media! Share our Facebook posts with your friends and contacts. We will be tracking the "spread" of this generosity, publicizing the number of donations rather than the accumulated amount. Every contribution helps! Together Calvary will weather this storm since we are, as always, ALL IN!

The Offering is sung by Nuer Witness, which is the choir of our church members from South Sudan. Their native language is Nuer. Today's offertory is a recording from the morning Easter worship service in 2019.

The Gospel Reading is read by Rev. Jacob Goertz. Jacob has an M.Div. from Palmer Theological Seminary and was ordained to ministry at Calvary in Dec. 2019. He now lives in Durango where he works as a chaplain at Mercy Regional Medical Center. In his free time he enjoys reading, writing poetry, playing board games, discovering new music of all different genres, and hiking. Though he lives far from Calvary now, he still engages via ZOOM with FLO (Figuring Life Out), Calvary's small group for adults in their 20s, 30s, and 40s.

The Scripture for today comes from Year 2 (Mark) of the Narrative Lectionary (NL), a four-year cycle of readings for use in worship that provide an overview of the biblical story by focusing on a different gospel and different Old and New Testament texts each year. The NL follows the program year—Sept. to May—and is shaped by the church calendar:

- Old Testament: From Labor Day through Advent, Old Testament readings move through the story of God's interactions with Israel and culminate in Advent with the prophets' longing and hope for the coming Messiah.
- Gospel: From Christmas to Easter, readings from one Gospel tell the story of the birth of the Messiah at Christmas, the revelation of the Messiah during Epiphany, and Jesus' passion through Lent and Holy Week.
- Early Church: From Easter Sunday through the Day of Pentecost, readings from the Gospels, Acts, and Paul's letters reveal the power of the Holy Spirit in the early church's story.
- Summer Readings from the Sunday after Pentecost through the summer are flexible and include different miniseries on books of the bibles or topics such as The Ten Commandments or the Lord's Prayer, etc.

The singing of the "Hallelujah" Chorus from Handel's Messiah at the conclusion of worship on Easter has been a Calvary tradition for over two decades. Today's service includes a recording of this chorus from our morning Easter worship service in 2019. The Calvary Choir, under the direction of David Farwig and accompanied by Denise Lanning, is open to all singers age 18+.

Today's worship video was compiled by Damon Scalfaro. Sermons are usually uploaded to Calvary's Facebook page, YouTube page, and website within 24 hours following worship.

Wed. April 15 - MidWeek Virtual Gathering - 6:30 p.m. Join us as we check in with each other, share prayer concerns, pray together, and have a short devotion. We will email out the Zoom link on Tuesday; going forward a password will be required for extra security. The password will be in the email.

Sun. April 19 - Senior Sunday. Join us virtually next Sunday as we celebrate our graduating seniors and hear their reflections about their faith in God, experience of community here at Calvary, or how life has changed for them during their senior year.

Hosting Families Experiencing Homelessness through Family Promise Looks Different During COVID-19... Here's How You Can Help: With the COVID-19 pandemic it has been especially difficult for those experiencing homelessness and the Family Promise community has been working hard at finding a new way of supporting this at risk community.

Currently the families that Family Promise is hosting have been staying in local motels. As a host church, we are raising funds to help pay for the rooms, purchase supplies, breakfast/lunch foods needed during the week and provide meals through ordering from locally owned restaurants to be delivered to the families. Our upcoming host week is April 26 - May 3. As a community we need to raise about $2500 to cover the costs of these resources needed during our host week. How can YOU help during this different and difficult time? You can give through www.calvarydenver.org/give and indicate the funds are for Family Promise (select “Other” for giving type and then type in Family Promise Host Week). Or you can send a check through the mail to Calvary Baptist Church of Denver at 6500 E. Girard Ave. Denver, CO 80224 and write in the memo section of the check that it is for Family Promise.

Questions? Ask Family Promise Co-Coordinator Denise Wylde (wyldecamp@msn.com) or Debbie Honeker (dhoneker@lps.k12.co.us).

Our Bootstraps and Blessings program is on hold for the time being due to abuse of the honor system. (Unfortunately, one person is taking most of the bags all at once and then discarding the contents in the parking lot.) We are looking into other ways to help those experiencing homelessness and appreciate your past donations. When we reopen the program, we will again need our basics like peanut butter, water, crackers, healthy snacks, Capri sun, Kleenex, hand sanitizer/sanitizing wipes, etc. In the meantime, one of our local mission partners, Jewish Family Services offers a drive thru food pantry Tuesdays-Fridays from 10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. We are checking to see how we might support them. Questions? Contact Pat Hagen.
